

ONE ACT PLAY SEASON

APRIL 2 – 5 2020

CATFISH JUMPING

by Greg Roberts, directed by Anna Ruth Laird

A 'whodunit' with a twist! Our two detectives have their work cut out in this murder mystery. Is it the fact they missed a clue? Is it the fact they don't have a clue? Everyone is a suspect ... including the catfish!

written and directed by Natalie Burns

The laundromat is a sanctuary, an escape from the outside world, a welcomed mundane. It's a place to disconnect from your daily life as you focus in on the hum of the wash and the tumble of the dry. Until a stranger enters that safe haven... and begins to ask questions... and takes it upon themselves to break the 'cycle'.

ANNA BY LAMPLIGHT

by Alison Knight, directed by Jane Carter

Berlin, November 1938, two days after Kristallnacht. A dangerous time to be a Jew. But who presents the greater danger to Anna: the Nazis or her abusive husband Max? And who is the stranger in black, lurking under the lamplight?
